GRAND SACRED CONCERT,
THIS (SUNDAY EVENING, April 8)
by a combination of Jubice Singers known as the CENTENNIALITES, consisting of thirty colored ladies and gentlemen, all of whom were slaves during the war. Since then they have been connected with the Flak University, and are now traveling through the country giving secred to loncerts, prior to their going to Thinadelphia, where they have been specially secured to sing during the Centennial months.

This organization was formed last January in Mobile, Air bama, at considerable labor and expense, for a tour through the South, and they have appeared at all the principal cities with success. This party gives a better class of music than has previously began-typercent, and they have appeared at all the principal took in the second control of the permanent leatures of this country. It is composed the deraking, and establishes the "Centennialites" as one of the permanent leatures of this country. It is composed eartiely of first class singer, and includes the very best sold talent of the South. This party is the Most Original Trouge in Existence.

The public can, therefore, rest assured of witnessing thorsoughly enjoyable and strictly first class succeed music, by and not the jicking up beter open country of a party from Thompson and Sulivan streets, such as have been instread upon the noble of fairs.
